MB-122-F

Sl.No. : Total No. of Pages : 2

IV Semester M.B.A. Degree Examination, May - 2025

(Non CBCS, SLM Scheme)

MANAGEMENT

Law of Banking (Elective-F)

Time : 3 Hours Max. Marks : 80

SECTION-A

Q1) Answer any five questions. [5×3=15]

a) Who is Banking Ombudsman?

b) Mention any NBFCs.

c) What is Bill of exchange?

d) Who is a Drawer?

e) State the kinds of advances.

f) Who is a Banker?

g) Define Negotiable Instrument.

SECTION-B

Answer any four questions: [4×5=20]

Q2) Examine the basic architectural of Indian finance sector.

Q3) Explicate Banking as business of borrowing and lending.

Q4) Write a note on loans and advances.

Q5) Explain in brief regarding The Banking Ombudsman scheme.

Q6) Examine the role and significance of Central Bank.

Q7) Distinguish between Holder and Holder in due course.

SECTION-C

Answer any three questions. [3×10=30]

Q8) Explain the significance of NBFCs and their regulation.

Q9) Examine the salient features of cheque.

Q10) Discuss the modern aspects of Banking.

Q11) Under what circumstances a banker may dishonour the cheques?

Q12) Examine the securities for availing Bankers loan.

SECTION-D

Q13) Case [1×15=15]

X draws a cheque and issues the same to his client payee Y. Y crosses the open cheque and presents the same across before the Drawee bank. The Banker dishonour the cheque by non-payment.

a) Is there a material alteration?

b) Does the material alteration vitiate the negotiable instrument.

c) State the remedies available to Y.

❋ ❋ ❋