MAY 2025 U/ID 31541/UNR3A

Time : Three hours Maximum : 75 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer any TEN questions in 30 words each.

1. What is digital literacy, and why is it important in today's digital age?

2. How does digitizing information impact computing and communication?

3. What are digital literacies, and what are their values in the language classroom?

4. How does digital literacy focus on language and connections in personal, participatory, and intercultural contexts?

5. What is information literacy, and how does it relate to media literacy?

6. How do young people's identities engage with technology, and what are the implications for digital literacy?

7. What is the role of literature in language and literacy learning in the digital era?

8. How does digital literacy provide a conceptual framework for survival skills in the digital era?

9. What are the socioeconomic factors that influence digital literacy?

10. How do digital databases support digital literacy and composition?

11. What is the significance of digital literacy in the language classroom?

12. How does digital literacy impact personal, participatory, and intercultural connections in online communities?

PART B — (5 × 5 = 25 marks)

Answer any FIVE questions in 200 words each.

13. Discuss the concept of digital literacy and its importance in today's digital age.

14. Explain the values of digital literacy in the language classroom, focusing on language and connections.

15. Describe the relationship between information literacy and media literacy, and their implications for digital literacy.

16. Discuss the role of literature in language and literacy learning in the digital era, and its significance for digital literacy.

17. Explain the socioeconomic factors that influence digital literacy, and their impact on digital composition.

18. Discuss the concept of digital literacies and their values in the language classroom, focusing on personal, participatory, and intercultural connections.

19. Describe the significance of digital literacy in the digital era, and its implications for survival skills and digital composition.

PART C — (3 × 10 = 30 marks)

Answer any THREE questions in 500 words each.

20. Discuss the concept of digital literacy and its importance in today's digital age, highlighting its impact on computing, communication, and collaboration.

21. Explain the values of digital literacy in the language classroom, focusing on language and connections, and discuss its implications for language learning and teaching.

22. Describe the relationship between information literacy and media literacy and their implications for digital literacy, highlighting the significance of labelling the digital generations.

23. Discuss the role of literature in language and literacy learning in the digital era, and its significance for digital literacy, highlighting the challenges and opportunities for digital literacy in English curriculum.

24. Explain the socioeconomic factors that influence digital literacy, and their impact on digital composition, highlighting the significance of digital databases and digital literacy for learning.

———————