MAY 2025 U/ID 31533/ULJ2A

Time : Three hours Maximum : 75 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

I. Answer any TEN questions in 30 words each.

1. What defines listening?

2. What are the three basic skills of listening?

3. State the difference between 'appreciative listening' and 'analytical listening'.

4. Mention the five process of listening to announcements.

5. What is the process of decoding?

6. Why do we listen to news bulletins?

7. What is the primary purpose of note-making?

8. Write a brief note on the purpose of audio materials.

9. What sort of process involved in comprehending stories?

10. State the possible strategies for better understanding stories.

11. What does "Listening for leadership" refer to?

12. Mention some of the advantages of building interpersonal communication.

PART B — ($5 \times 5 = 25$ marks)

II. Answer any FIVE questions in 200 words each.

13. Discuss the social and symbolic functions of foreign accents.

14. Describe the barriers to effective listening.

15. Suggest a few tips for listening effectively to announcements and instructions.

16. Analyse the various types of listening.

17. How to use news bulletins for language learning?

18. What are the steps to be taken for answering analytical questions?

19. How to practice listening for leadership?

PART C — (3 × 10 = 30 marks)

III. Answer any THREE in 500 words each.

20. Suggest the ways to improve active listening.

21. Write an essay on the stages of decoding announcements.

22. How to listen to lectures? Elaborate.

23. Discuss the strategies for comprehending stories.

24. Examine interpersonal communication in professional set up.

———————